MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1789.

VIENNA, January 17.

WE have not yet learnt what effect the capture of Oczakow has had on the minds of the divan; whether it is likely to diſpoſe them towards a peace, or to render them more eager in the continuation of the war. Prince Potemkin, we hear, employs all the Turkiſh priſoners in repairing the fortifications, and rebuilding the houſes; whence it ſeems probable, that the empreſs intends at all events to retain that place.

A perſon of ſome conſequence arrived on Sunday from Berlin; he keeps moſt ſtrictly incog. and puzzles the whole corps diplomatique to divine the nature of his embaſſy; as he has not even viſited the Pruſſian envoy at this court. It is conjectured, however, that his miſſion reſpects the affairs of Poland, which are becoming more and more critical. It is now pretty certain, that a Pruſſian army will march in the ſpring to the frontiers of that republic.

Letters from Jaſſy of the 10th inſtant mention, that a detachment from the army, commanded by marſhal Romanzow, had ſucceeded in their attempt to diſlodge a body of Turks, conſiſting of 900 men, from Gangura, purſued them to Kainar, and having driven from thence 700 Tartars, proceeded to the attack of Salkutza, and obtained a complete victory. The enemy loſt in theſe ſeveral actions 390 men killed, 77 priſoners, four pieces of artillery, and ſix colours; whilſt the Ruſſians had only one enſign and four men killed, and 24 wounded.

LONDON, January 31.

Extract of a letter from Paris, December 14.

"M. de Suffrein, who died on Tueſday laſt, was interred on the Thurſday following in the Temple, being a knight of Malta. It is ſaid his phyſician ordered him to be copiouſly bled five times in one day. He died, alas! under the murderous lancet, that daily opens to many a victim in France a paſſage to the other world."

Extract of a letter from Paris, December 17.

"In the ſtreets of Paris, a gentleman was attacked by three robbers, who, according to the cuſtom of this country, began by attempting to aſſaſſinate him; a hackney-coachman driving by with an empty coach at the ſame time, and ſeeing what paſſed, cried out aloud as if he had a fare, "Gentlemen, alight with your ſwords, and reſcue a gentleman, whom ſome villains are going to murder!" The aſſaſſins alarmed at this cry, immediately took to their heels; the coachman drove to the gentleman, took him in, and conducted him home. In recompence for his aſſiſtance, the gentleman gave the poor fellow two Louis d'ors on alighting, and bid the man come next day for a further reward. The poor fellow returned as he was ordered, and found a promiſe ready written, for a penſion of 400 livres a year, which the gentleman gave him, ſaying, "Friend, you have ſaved my life, it is juſt that I ſhould take care of yours."

Feb. 17. The accounts of the amended ſtate of the king's health are flattering to a degree. Some of the phyſicians, it is ſaid, go ſo far as to declare, that were he a private individual, they ſhould pronounce him perfectly recovered. We truſt, therefore, that the united wiſhes of a loyal and affectionate people will ſoon be gratified with an aſſurance that his majeſty is capable of conducting the government himſelf. At the ſame time that we ardently join in this wiſh, which we take to be, with very few exceptions indeed, the common feeling of the public in general, we cannot but applaud the prudence and precaution of thoſe who do not wiſh to riſk the diſappointment and diſpleaſure of the people, by too early a declaration of his majeſty's complete recovery.

The report of the intention of proroguing parliament yeſterday for a fortnight, it ſeems, by the event, was not true. Indeed, however ſpeedily the king may amend, his perfect recovery will hardly happen ſo ſoon as to preclude all neceſſity of a regency.

Extract of a letter from Vienna, January 21.

"The alliance between this court and that of Verſailles, ſince the mediation relative to the Turkiſh war, ſeems to become ſtronger. Yeſterday another courier arrived from Paris and one from Peterſburgh.

"It is reported here, that the empreſs of Ruſſia was juſt putting the finiſhing ſtroke to a plan for a peace with the Porte, and going to ſend it to our court and that of Paris, when the news arrived of the taking of Oczakow, which occaſioned an alteration of the plan, and the keeping of Oczakow was made a preliminary article.

"The general talk here is of the preparations made by government to put the provinces bordering upon Poland into the beſt ſtate of defence poſſible, upon the ſuppoſition of that kingdom becoming a theatre of as inveterate a war as that between the two empires and the Porte. However premature theſe conjectures may be, there ſeems but too much reaſon to fear they may prove in the end well founded."

During the whole courſe of his majeſty's melancholy indiſpoſition, we truſt, that we have fully approved our credit to our numerous readers and the public at large. We have ever been ready to communicate the pleaſing intelligence of any actual amendment in the health of the ſovereign, when we have been ſatisfied that the reports of ſuch a probable chance were well founded. We do, therefore, cheerfully announce, that the exiſting ſymptoms undoubtedly warrant more particular hopes of a recovery than could have been reaſonably entertained a week ſince: but upon ſome points, the diſorder has continued invariably obſtinate, and ſhort paroxiſms of violence have from time to time recurred. Theſe appearances may lead to a total reſtoration of the royal underſtanding, or they may determine in fixed inſanity on the particular points to which we allude. One plain fact is univerſally admitted, namely, that as yet there is no approach to convaleſcence; the abſolute violence is leſs; the ſtate of quiet, however, as upon the worſt, as to the beſt effects. It is right to hope for the moſt favourable iſſue from the Divine favour, but intereſted purpoſes alone can dictate poſitive aſſertions of a ſubject, on which no human ſkill can yet pronounce with honeſt deciſion, and ſurely it is the baſeſt traffic to take advantage of the terrible viciſſitudes of ſuch a diſorder to carry on the abominable ſpeculations of Change Alley.

DUBLIN, February 21.

HOUSE OF LORDS.

This day, at four o'clock, the lord chancellor, attended by ſeveral peers, and alſo by the ſpeaker of the houſe of commons, and upwards of ſeventy members, went up with the following addreſs to the caſtle, in order to be tranſmitted into Great-Britain.

TO HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS

GEORGE PRINCE OF WALES.

The humble addreſs of the lords ſpiritual and temporal, and knights, citizens and burgeſſes, in parliament aſſembled.

"May it pleaſe your royal highneſs,

"We, his majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the lords ſpiritual and temporal, and the commons of Ireland in parliament aſſembled, beg leave to approach your royal highneſs with hearts full of the moſt loyal and affectionate attachment to the perſon and government of your royal father, to expreſs the deepeſt and moſt grateful ſenſe of the numerous bleſſings which we have enjoyed under that illuſtrious houſe, whoſe acceſſion to the throne of theſe realms, has eſtabliſhed civil and conſtitutional liberties upon a baſis which we truſt will never be ſhaken; and at the ſame time to condole with your royal highneſs upon the grievous malady with which it has pleaſed Heaven to afflict the beſt of ſovereigns.

"We have, however, the conſolation of reflecting, that this ſevere calamity hath not been viſited upon us, until the virtues of your royal highneſs have been ſo matured, as to enable your highneſs to diſcharge the duties of an important truſt, for the performance whereof, the eyes of all his majeſty's ſubjects of both kingdoms are directed to your royal highneſs.

"We therefore beg leave humbly to requeſt, that your royal highneſs will pleaſe to take upon you the government of this realm, during the continuance of his majeſty's preſent indiſpoſition, and no longer; and under the ſtyle and title of prince regent of Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of his majeſty, to exerciſe and adminiſter, according to the law, and conſtitution of this kingdom, all regal powers, juriſdictions and prerogatives, to the crown and government thereof belonging."

The lords being returned, and the lord chancellor having taken his ſeat on the woolſack, he informed the houſe that having waited upon his excellency the marquis of Buckingham with the addreſs to his royal highneſs the prince of Wales, agreed to by both houſes, his excellency declined to take charge of the ſame, and as anſwer delivered the following words from a written paper:——

"Under the impreſſions which I feel of my official duty, and of the oath I have taken as chief governor of Ireland, I am obliged to decline tranſmitting this addreſs into Great-Britain; for I cannot conſider myſelf warranted to lay before the prince of Wales an addreſs, purporting to inveſt his royal highneſs with powers to take upon him the government of this realm before he ſhall be enabled by law ſo to do."

The duke of Leinſter moved, that the houſe do adjourn till to-morrow, which was agreed to nem. con. and the houſe adjourned accordingly.

KINGSTON, January 10.

Extract of a letter from Goolzerburg, January 4, 1789, written by a gentleman in the ſervice of the Eaſt-India company to his ſiſter in this iſland.

"Poſitive intelligence has been received here, from a gentleman of reſpectability at Tanjore, that the ſultan Tippoo Saib, after concluding a treaty with the Mahrattas, and fomenting diviſions among their chiefs, to prevent the renewal of the confederacy againſt himſelf, returned to Seringapatam, and occupied himſelf entirely in completing his vaſt preparations for war. He has long been deſirous of attacking the Britiſh, and only waits for a favourable opportunity of commencing hoſtilities. Directly as his ſon's marriage, now pending, ſhall be accompliſhed, he means to attack the kingdom of Travancore, for which he has made immenſe preparations; and if the ambaſſadors whom he has ſent to the court of France ſhould return with an anſwer agreeable to his wiſhes, he is alſo determined to enter the Carnatic immediately and attack Madras itſelf, after having ſupplied Pondicherry with all the ſtores and proviſions it may require. Some ſhort time ago Tippoo gave particular injunctions to all his aumiloars to collect the balance due from the ryotte to the circar, and ordered all the arrears due to his army to be diſcharged. He has provided enormous quantities of military ſtores and proviſions, at all the ſea ports in his dominions, and to all the ports leading to the Carnatic, particularly at Bargaloore, Sovendroog and Huſour. He added thirty thouſand bullocks to the compliment of his artillery, which are now in training. He has a body of five hundred camels each carrying a ſmall piece of cannon upon his back, which are exerciſed every day, and the number is to be augmented to two thouſand. In his ſtores are a lack of rochoar arrows, and workmen are continually employed in making more.—He is enliſting men in every part of his dominions, but receives only thoſe of high caſt and approved bravery. The following is a liſt of his army already in the field: Twenty-ſix thouſand ſtable horſes; fifty three thouſand regular infantry; fifty thouſand irregular ditto; matchlocks, &c. and thirty thouſand Laſcars and artificers. Reports ſimilar to this account are every where flying about, and it is thought highly probable that after the Moonſoon, Tippoo will make ſome bold attempt. If he moleſts the Travancory king, it involves us of courſe, as the latter is included in the offenſive and defenſive treaty of alliance, and for many eminent ſervices rendered the company, has a claim on their protection; which I believe has been notified to Tippoo, in due form by this government."

"To convince you that the above alarming news is well-founded, I hereby ſend you the ſubſtance of other intelligence, which has been received expreſs from Madras."—"General Sir Archibald Campbell, not having received any ſatisfactory anſwer reſpecting Tippoo's formidable armaments, has iſſued orders from the troops to be encamped immediately after the Moonſoon, and that ten thouſand men be conſtantly in readineſs, as a detachment, to watch the motions of Tippoo's army."

NEW-YORK, April 16.

The Algerines are ſaid to be making preparations to render themſelves very formidable againſt Spain in the enſuing ſpring; but a more powerful opponent is to be expected in his preſent majeſty, than they experienced in the late king. The long mental imbecility of his late Spaniſh majeſty communicated a dulneſs to the court, which operated as a check to the encouragement both of literature and the polite arts; the Spaniards are not deſtitute of genius, but they are negligent from want of excitement; the preſent ſovereign, as a man of taſte and a friend of literature, will do honour to the throne.

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.

A Mr. Edward Weymen, of Charleſton, South-Carolina, has (by advertiſement) noticed the directors or managers of glaſs-houſes in the United States of America, that he is perfectly acquainted in the ſecret art and practice of plate glaſs grinding, rubbing, poliſhing, diamond-cutting, and ſilvering; and is provided with the compleateſt apparatus (out of Europe) to carry on the above branches: All thoſe who wiſh to encourage American manufactures, and chooſe to correſpond on this ſubject, and alſo the caſting of plate glaſs, may receive further information with regard to the manufacture, and the many advantages reſulting therefrom, by applying to him, at No. 50, Church-ſtreet, Charleſton.

The following maxims of the Chineſe, deſerve the attention and obſervation of the wiſeſt ſtates:—One of their emperors exhorting the people to induſtry, told them, "That if in any corner of the empire there was a man that did not labour, there muſt be another ſomewhere, who lived in miſery and the want of the neceſſaries of life." The Chineſe every where through that extenſive empire, religiouſly obſerve this doctrine; for the prince who utters a maxim of wiſdom to a people ſo ready to liſten to reaſon, publiſhes a law.

Yeſterday his excellency the preſident of the United States arrived in this city, about one o'clock, accompanied by the preſident of the ſtate, the chief juſtice, the ſpeaker of the aſſembly, the attorney-general, the honourable Mr. Read, and ſecretary Thomſon, the two city troops of horſe, the county troop, a detachment of artillery, a body of light infantry, and a numerous concourſe of citizens on horſeback and foot.

His excellency rode in front of the proceſſion, on horſeback, politely bowing to the ſpectators who filled the doors, windows and ſtreets, which he paſſed. The bells were rung, and a feu-de-joy was fired as he moved down Market and Second ſtreets, to the City-Tavern.

The joy of our whole city upon this auguſt ſpectacle, cannot eaſily be deſcribed. Every countenance ſeemed to ſay, Long, long live GEORGE WASHINGTON, THE FATHER OF THE PEOPLE! At 3 o'clock his excellency ſat down to an elegant entertainment at the City-Tavern, prepared for him by the citizens of Philadelphia. His excellency having travelled with great expedition from Mount-Vernon, propoſes to ſet off early this morning for New-York, where he will receive that power, which is infinitely preferable to an hereditary crown, inaſmuch as it is conferred upon merit, by the unanimous and free ſuffrages of the repreſentatives of near three millions of affectionate and grateful people.

WINCHESTER, April 15.

Wedneſday laſt a perſon arrived in town from Kentucky, which he left the 23d ult. but gives us no material information, other than that ſeveral people have been killed by the Indians this ſpring, in the vicinity of Lexington; but, our informant obſerves, theſe are circumſtances which ſo frequently occur, that they are but little noticed in that quarter, therefore, could not recollect particulars.

ANNAPOLIS, April 30.

A coreſpondent having favoured us with the copy of the addreſs from the mayor, corporation and citizens, of Alexandria, to the preſident of the United States, and his excellency's anſwer, we preſent them to our readers.

To GEORGE WASHINGTON, Eſquire,
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, &c. &c.

AGAIN your country demands your care.—Obedient to its wiſhes, unmindful of your own eaſe, we ſee you again relinquiſhing the bliſs of retirement; and this too, at a period of life, when nature itſelf ſeems to authoriſe a preference of repoſe!

Not to extol your glory as a ſoldier—Not to pour forth our gratitude for paſt ſervices—Not to acknowledge the juſtice of the unexampled honour which has been conferred upon you, by the ſpontaneous and unanimous ſuffrage of three millions of freemen, in your election to the ſupreme magiſtracy—Not to admire the patriotiſm which directs your conduct, do your neighbours and friends now addreſs you.—Themes leſs ſplendid, but more endearing, impreſs our minds.—The firſt and beſt of citizens muſt leave us! Our aged muſt loſe their ornament! Our youth their model! Our agriculture its improver! Our commerce its friend! Our infant academy its patron! Our poor their benefactor! And the inferior navigation of the Patowmack, an event replete with the moſt extenſive utility, already, by your unremitted exertions, brought into partial uſe—its inſtitutor and promoter!

Farewell!—Go, and make a grateful people happy; a people who will be doubly grateful when they contemplate this recent ſacrifice for their intereſt.

To that Being, who maketh and unmaketh at his will, we commend you: and, after the accompliſhment of the arduous buſineſs to which you are called, may He reſtore to us again the beſt of men, and the moſt beloved fellow-citizen.

In behalf of the people of Alexandria,
DENNIS RAMSAY, MAYOR.

April 16, 1789.

HIS EXCELLENCY'S ANSWER.
To the MAYOR, CORPORATION, and CITIZENS of ALEXANDRIA.

GENTLEMEN,

ALTHOUGH I ought not to conceal, yet I cannot deſcribe, the painful emotions which I felt, in being called upon to determine whether I would accept, or refuſe, the preſidency of the United States.

The unanimity in the choice—the opinion of my friends communicated from different parts of Europe, as well as of America—the apparent wiſh of thoſe who were not entirely ſatisfied with the conſtitution in its preſent form, and an ardent deſire, on my own part, to be inſtrumental in conciliating the good will of my countrymen towards each other, have induced an acceptance. Thoſe who know me beſt (and you, my fellow-citizens, are, from your ſituation, in that number) know better than any others, my love of retirement is ſo great, that no earthly conſideration, ſhort of a conviction of duty, could have prevailed upon me to depart from my reſolution "never more to take any ſhare in tranſactions of a public nature."

For, at my age, and in my circumſtances, what poſſible advantages could I propoſe to myſelf, from embarking again on the tempeſtuous and uncertain ocean of public life?

I do not feel myſelf under the neceſſity of making public declarations, in order to convince you, gentlemen, of my attachment to yourſelves, and regard for your intereſts. The whole tenor of my life has been open to your inſpection; and my paſt actions, rather than my preſent declarations, muſt be the pledge for my future conduct.

In the mean time, I thank you moſt ſincerely for the expreſſions of kindneſs, contained in your valedictory addreſs. It is true, juſt after having bade adieu to my domeſtic connexions, this tender proof of your friendſhip, is but too well calculated ſtill further to awaken my ſenſibility, and increaſe my regret, at parting from the enjoyments of private life.

All that now remains for me is, to commit myſelf and you to the protection of that Beneficent Being, who on a former occaſion, hath happily brought us together, after a long and diſtreſſing ſeparation. Perhaps the ſame gracious PROVIDENCE will again indulge us with the ſame heart-felt felicity. But words, my fellow-citizens, fail me. Unutterable ſenſations muſt then be left to more expreſſive ſilence, while, from an aching heart, I bid you all, my affectionate friends, and kind neighbours, farewell!

ALL that TRACT of LAND called EDWARD's NECK, but better known by the name of FULLER's or THOMAS's-POINT; this tract lies within five miles of Annapolis, and contains, according to patent, one hundred acres; a description of the land is unnecessary, as those inclined to purchase can view it before the day of sale. The terms of sale are, one half of the purchase to be paid with interest on the fourth day of September next, the other half with interest on the first day of May, 1790. Bond with approved security to be given for the purchase money, and bond for conveying the land, when the whole of the money is paid. w3

A CAUTION,

To those who are disposed to buy the LAND,

HOPKINS's FANCY.

HAVING conveyances from Gerard Hopkins, Elizabeth Hopkins, widow of the late Philip Hopkins, from the eldest son of Philip Hopkins, from Richard Hopkins the second son, from Richard Dowell and his wife and daughter, from Hutton and wife, another daughter, of their parts of the said land; and having other claims against the said land, it is with concern that I see Richard Hopkins undertake to advertise to sell that land upon the 15th day of April, 1789, without my knowledge or consent. The embarrassment upon it requiring the best counsel, I repeatedly proposed to Richard Hopkins and all concerned, to apply to the honourable the chancellor for his authority and direction, and I went and waited at Annapolis for that purpose a long time in vain: under these circumstances I think it fair to publish this caution. It is my interest that the land shall be sold for the utmost price that can be obtained; and I earnestly desire that justice may be done to every one concerned, but I do not apprehend these good effects will arise under the management of Mr. Richard Hopkins, and I therefore object to his interfering in this manner.

3 X STEPHEN WEST.

FRIENDSHIP,

A HANDSOME full bred horse, stands this season at the subscriber's plantation, in Prince-George's county, about seven miles from Bladensburg, and the same distance from Snowden's works, and will cover mares at six dollars each; he is a good sorrel, full fifteen hands high, with length and bone in proportion, and is six years old; he was bred by William Mitchel, Esquire, of Virginia, and was got by Apollo, the property of colonel Henry Lee, out of an imported full bred mare. Apollo was got by general Spotswood's noted Apollo. FRIENDSHIP has run two matches, and won both easy. Few horses in this state are equal to him in beauty and form. He covers at half price, owing to the scarcity of cash. tf

3 CHARLES DUVALL.

N. B. Thirty-five shillings will be received if the money be paid by the first day of September next.

The imported HORSE

CARDINAL PUFF,

STANDS this season at Samuel Harrison, junior's plantation, near Herring-Bay, and will cover at three pounds a mare, and five shillings the groom; he is full fifteen hands high, is a sure foal-getter, and his stock very large and handsome. Good pasturage at two shillings and six-pence per week, and proper care taken of the mares.

N. B. Six dollars sent with the mares or paid by the first day of September next, will be taken in lieu of the above three pounds. 3w

April 8, 1789. 2

NORTHERN ECLIPSE,

WILL stand for mares this season at Londontown, near Annapolis, at two guineas each mare, and a dollar to the groom, the money to be sent with the mares. Pasturage for mares at half a dollar per week, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes. This horse is a chesnut, fifteen hands and an inch high, not handsome, but he has some of the best English running blood in his veins, with bone and action. 6w

JOHN CRAGGS.

NORTHERN ECLIPSE was got by O'Kelly's famous Eclipse, and out of Ameryllis. Ameryllis was got by Adolphus, son of Regulus, and out of Lodge's roan mare, which was got by Partner (the first and most famous stallion then in England) her dam by Baboon, which was got by Badger, her grand-dam by old Traveller, which was sire to the duke of Cleveland's Dainty Davy, which won successively five gold cups at Richmond, in Yorkshire, her great-grand-dam by Snake, then the most capital stallion of his day. This is a true pedigree, as witness my hand,

3 W. NEWBURN, the Breeder,
Cleveland, Yorkshire.

PITT,

PITT was got by Chatham, his dam, three quarters blooded, by Figure; he is seven years old, a jet black, in high order, fifteen hands high, handsome, strong and active, equal to most horses to breed from.

4w 3 HENRY JOHNSON.

VENETIAN,

WILL stand for MARES this season at FRANCIS TOLSON, Esquire's plantation, in Prince-George's county, 5 miles from the ferry opposite Alexandria, at five guineas each mare, and a dollar the groom, or three guineas each mare, and three and nine-pence to the grooom, if paid by the first of August, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes.—Good grass for mares at half a dollar per week. Venetian is a fine bay, fifteen hands and an half high, with length and bone in proportion; he was bred by Sir James Pennyman, bart. of Yorkshire, and got by Doge, his dam by Jennison Shaftoe Snap, sire of Golsander, Gnawpost, Dasey and other good runners, his granddam by old Fox; Doge was got by Regulus, son of the Godolphin Arabian, his dam by Crab, his grand dam by Dyer's Dimple, which was got by Leed's Arabian. Venetian, at five years old, won the king's plate at Newcastle, and the fifty pounds for all ages, the same week, beating Mr. Fenwick's famous mare Spider Brusher, and several others, fifteen days after he won the king's plate at Carlisle, beating lord Surry's famous horse Bon-Mot, and run second to High Flyer at York.

NOTICE.

WE, the subscribers, appointed by the honourable the chancellor of this state, under and by virtue of an act of the general assembly, passed at the last session, to adjust the claims against ANTHONY STEWART, formerly residing in this city, but now in Nova-Scotia, and to make a dividend of the produce of his estate among his creditors, which was confiscated and sold for the payment of his debts, do hereby give notice, that we have given security for the due performance of the said trust, are ready to enter upon the execution thereof, and to receive the applications of all persons interested; and we do request all person or persons having in their possession any books or accounts of the said Anthony Stewart, to give information thereof as soon as possible. 5 R. DENNY, R. B. LATIMER, } Trustees.

FOR SALE,

By the subscriber, appointed trustee by the honourable the chancery court of Maryland,

THAT well known ferry at Rock Hall, lately occupied by Mr. BASIL NOIEL. There is on the premises a good framed house, 36 feet square, four rooms on the lower floor, and three lodging rooms, with four fire places, with a passage through the house, and good dry cellar, with a partition therein; there is a good kitchen adjoining the dwelling house, by a very convenient summer room, that has two corner cupboards and seats around the same: the kitchen is lathed and plaistered, with convenient rooms above stairs, finished for lodging waiters and gentlemen's servants.

There is a stable with a paved floor, and carriage house adjoining, a negro quarter, meat house, a good corn house, hen house, blacksmith's shop, and a convenient warehouse, at the landing, with a paled in garden, and a young peach orchard. There is a good well of water in the yard, and a spring within thirty yards of the house.

There is belonging to the above property 150 acres of land, half of which is cleared and under good fences, divided in fields, and two lots of six or eight acres each, adapted to clover or timothy. From its public situation it is well known to possess every advantage that can be expected from keeping a tavern and ferry across the bay to Annapolis and Baltimore-town; it is remarkably healthy; the waters abound with good rock fish, perch, crabs, oysters, and in their season, a quntity of wild fowl. The sale to be made on the premises by public auction, the 14th day of May, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter.

JAMES RINGGOLD.

March 31, 1789. 3

To be LEASED,

SEVERAL LOTS of GROUND in this city, on the Church circle, and the streets called Tabernacle-street, opposite Mr. James Ringgold's, and Lawyer's-street, opposite Mr. John Callahan's. The lots may be known by applying to the subscriber.

JAMES STEUART.

ST. JOHN's COLLEGE.

THE visitors and governors of St. John's College having, on the 10th of May, 1786, authorised Samuel Chase, Nicholas Carroll and Alexander Contee Hanson, or any two of them, to appoint a person to collect the money, then or thereafter to be subscribed: we, the said Nicholas Carroll and Alexander Contee Hanson, did accordingly, soon after, appoint Archibald Golder, of the city of Annapolis. Of this appointment the public was duly notified. The collector advertised times and places for his attendance in several counties. He attended agreeably to his notice, and moreover made personal application to many of the subscribers. But, although the stipulated periods of payment have long since elapsed, not more than 1500l. out of 11,024l. have been paid.

We have this day renewed our agreement with the collector. Subscribers who have not yet paid their first third, are requested, without delay, to pay the same, and such further part, as they shall think proper, to the said Archibald Golder, or to Benjamin Harwood, treasurer. They will be called on, within a reasonable time, to make the second and third payments, the last of which was due on the 1st of June, 1787.—All legal methods of compulsion would be as disagreeable to the visitors as disgraceful to subscribers. But it is the indispensable duty of trustees to adopt such modes of exacting payment, as shall be found necessary, or expedient.

The building of the college was projected, and begun on a plan, in some measure, proportioned to its nominal funds. For a considerable length of time, it has been suspended, for want of money.—The gentlemen who subscribed liberally, and paid with punctuality, had a right to expect, in the course of four years, that the work would be complete, and the seminary beginning to flourish. They cannot but remember the generous patriotic ardor, with which the institution was commenced. They have sustained an injury from all those whose neglect or failure has retarded its progress; and, for their satisfaction, as well as for other purposes, a list of subscribers names, with the sums subscribed, and the sums paid, will probably be published as soon as conveniently may be, after the 12th day of May next.

At a meeting of the visitors and governors, on the 5th of July, 1786, the second Tuesdays in February, May, August and November, were appointed for their quarterly meetings. A sufficient number hath not, since that period, been convened, although extraordinary meetings have been requested, by public advertisement and personal solicitation. As the repeated disappointments of those who have repaired to Annapolis, at their own expence, for the sole purpose of meeting the visitors, may perhaps, without some particular notice, prevent their attendance, at the next regular stated meeting, we take the liberty of most earnestly entreating every gentleman, who has accepted the trust of a visitor and governor of St. John's College, to attend on the second Tuesday of May next. As the general court will be held on that day, we presume no time more convenient can be mentioned.

It is perhaps proper to inform the public, that the number of visitors cannot exceed twenty-four, that not less than nine can form the corporation; that it has never exceeded eleven; that by death it is reduced to ten; that not less than seven have authority to act; and that only two, at this time, reside at Annapolis. It is almost needless to add, that matters of the greatest importance await their consideration. It is much to be wished, that the number were completed or increased. Whether this object may not be attained, provided nine shall be convened, will be debated at their next meeting; and we hope that, if any gentleman be disposed to resign, he will at least bestow his endeavours, that the body may be first enabled to supply his place.

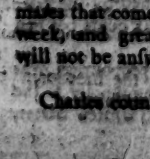
THE subscribers being very anxious that an immediate payment of what is due them be made, that they may be enabled to comply with their engagements; in order to facilitate the collection, have appointed Mr. JOHN WATKINS, to call upon those who have accounts with them, for the same, whose receipt shall be good; they beg that this notice be particularly attended to, as it is not in their power to give any further indulgence; those who incline to call and pay at Annapolis, will always find a person at their late store on the Dock, or at the treasury-office, ready to receive. 4o

THOMAS and BENJAMIN HARWOOD.

Twenty Dollars Reward.



RAN away from the subscriber's quarter in Loudon county, early in last month, a negro man named GEORGE, he is about 20 years of age, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, his nostrils are remarkably wide, he sometimes complains of a wart on the bottom of one of his feet, which makes him a little lame; he is a likely sensible fellow: He had on a green jacket and overalls, osnabrig shirt, an old hat, shoes and stockings, and took with him a Dutch blanket, a blue broad cloth coat and breeches, a blue jacket without sleeves, and sundry other cloaths—He has been seen near this town since he ran away. Whoever will apprehend the aforesaid negro, and deliver him to the subscriber, or secure him in any gaol, so that he may be got again, shall receive the above reward, and if taken out of this state and brought home, all charges paid.

PHILIP R. FENDALL.

Alexandria, Sept. 30, 1788. 22

To be LET for a term of years, on good security,

A MOST valuable and beautiful FARM, situate on the north side of Severn river, about six miles from Annapolis, with a parcel of choice SLAVES, STOCK and plantation UTENSILS.

Also a large commodious HOUSE and GARDEN, pleasantly situated, with a quantity of LAND within two miles of Annapolis.

Any person inclinable to lease either of the above farms may be informed of the terms by applying to Dr. WILLIAM MURRAY, in Annapolis, or Mr. PHILIP ROGERS, in Baltimore. 10

RAN away from the subscriber, a young NEGRO MAN, called DAVY, on the 13th of March, 1789; his dress is an osnabrig shirt, and cotton waistcoat and breeches; it is probable he will change his dress as he has other cloaths; he is an artful, deceiving fellow, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, and stole a large sum of money two or three days before he went off: it is thought he is gone off with his overseer, ROBERT JACKSON, who is gone away with Joshua Rentee's wife. Whoever takes up and secures the said negro, shall be entitled to EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.

tf 7 ELIZABETH RAWLINGS.

The beautiful HORSE ROEBUCK,

WILL cover mares this season at the subscriber's plantation in Charles county, at the low price of five pounds currency per mare, and one dollar to the groom, but if the money is paid when the mare is taken away, three pounds, and one dollar to the groom, will be taken in lieu of the five pounds. It is useless to insert his pedigree as it is well known, but it may be seen at his stable. ROEBUCK's stock is remarkable, both for the turf and saddle, I believe equal to any in the state. Good pasturage is provided for mares that come a distance, at two and six-pence per week, and great care will be taken of them; but I will not be answerable for escapes or accidents. 8w

PROPOSALS,

For Printing by Subscription,
BY ISAAC COLLINS,
In TRENTON,
THE

HOLY BIBLE,

CONTAINING
The OLD and NEW TESTAMENT;
WITH THE
Apocrypha and Marginal Notes.

CONDITIONS.

I. This work, to be contained in one large volume, Quarto, of nine hundred and eighty-four pages, will be reprinted page for page with the Oxford edition, on a beautiful new type, and good paper. An index will be added; and also the Scripture measures, weights and coins.

II. The price to subscribers, for the volume, well bound, four Spanish dollars; one dollar to be paid at the time of subscribing, the remainder on delivery of the book.

III. The work to be put to press as soon as three thousand copies shall be subscribed for, and to be finished without delay.

The Editor has been encouraged, by a number of respectable characters, to offer the above proposals to the public, under a conviction that a handsome American edition of the Bible, in Quarto, will, at this time, be both seasonable and acceptable, as no part of the money will go out of the country.

This consideration, it is hoped, will be an inducement to subscribe, and of course promote the more frequent reading of this most invaluable book in private families. He therefore wishes to attract the attention, and obtain the countenance of people of all denominations; not doubting but that, in the execution of the work, he will be able to give ample satisfaction, both as to its accuracy and neatness.

Subscriptions will be received by Hugh Gaine and Edmund Prior, New-York; by Joseph Crukshank and William Young, Philadelphia; by Townsend and Paxton, Baltimore; and by the editor in Trenton.

It is requested, that the leading characters of all the different denominations of Christians in the United States, who may feel disposed to promote this undertaking, will, as early as may be, grant their assistance in procuring subscriptions—and that the several printers of news-papers in the union will be pleased to insert the above proposals in their papers. 26

To all whom it may concern.

MR. ISAAC COLLINS has, for many years last past, been, and still is, printer to the state of New-Jersey: Having by this means had the more frequent opportunities to see his work, I have had abundant proof of the accuracy and correctness of his publications, as well as of his remarkable attention to business.
